SPRING INTO ACTION

Sunday 7th & 14th June 2020

The Gift of Peace

Taken from Our Daily Bread

Simeon, a resident of Jerusalem during the first century, experienced profound peace because of Jesus. Moved by the Holy Spirit, Simeon went to the temple when Mary and Joseph brought baby Jesus to be circumcised as required by the law for a new born boy. Although not much is known about Simeon, from Luke's description one can tell he was a special man of God, just and devout, waiting faithfully for the coming Messiah, "and the Holy Spirit was on him" (Luke 2:25 NIV). Yet Simeon did not experience shalom (peace), a deep sense of completeness, until he saw Jesus.

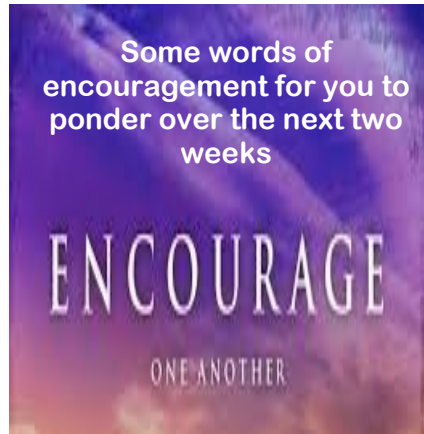

While holding Jesus in his arms, Simeon broke into a song of praise, expressing full satisfaction in God: "Sovereign Lord, as you have promised, you may now dismiss your servant in peace. For my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the sight of all nations" (Luke 2:29-31 NIV).

He had peace because he foresaw the future hope of the whole world.

As we see all the turmoil going on in the world right now with the Pandemic and the demonstrations for justice let us continue to focus and celebrate the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, the promised Savior, and rejoice in God's gift of peace.

SERVE SOMEONE TODAY - (From UCB Word for Today)

Before He went to the cross, the Bible says that 'Jesus...took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him' (John 13:3-5 NIV). Then He said, 'I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you...Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them' (John 13:15 & 17 NIV). What a lesson! Love can't be manifested in isolation. It can't be done sitting alone in front of a TV or PC. To quote the singer Michael W. Smith: 'Love wasn't put in your heart to stay. Love isn't love till you give it away.' Note, Jesus 'showed them the full extent of his love'. How? By donning a servant's towel. And where can you do that? Anywhere! Your workplace can become a sacred place where God's presence blesses the mundane, day-to-day routine, because the love of God within you wears a servant's towel. 'Let me make those copies for you...I'll cover your calls while you run to school to bring your son his lunch box...you look like you're going through a rough time, and I'm a pretty good listener. I may not have all the answers, but I know Someone who does.' Paul bottom-lines it: 'Through love serve one another.' (Galatians 5:13 NKJV). So go out of your way to serve someone today.

AFTER..... Written by Veronica Bennett-Gayle

The sun shimmers gently through the current fend of demise, heaving its natural resources of life to come in and enter the souls of our mind. We have reached a place of abnormality, the search, it now begins, to ride through this storm that has evolved, that has caused so much panic, that has caused so much heartache.

The upside-down world that eclipsed, firing bullets of destruction in every area has left an unknown in some of our lives. The rebuilding of our faith, for those who had questioned this mortality and discomfort had grazed us like a wounded, intangible wound sourcing out the pain it released.

For some it had fed every emotion with fear, anxiety, depression, loneliness, isolation, insecurity, and rode off strength, self-worth, control, manageability and humanity. This daily feeling halted, not for a moment and not for a season. For we have recaptured the days of old where 'Lest we Forget' and have outed it out in these days of new.

For we shall stand firm on the solid rock.....

This new order has impacted many but with this many a new rebuild has been called, has been placed in our hearts and our mindset. The parable of 'the solid rock I stand' illustrates that we have a faithful God. Never changing, Never moving from post but providing us with consuming strength of faith and with this, peace that surrounds our going out and our coming in.

We have come towards the After.... A place where we can rebuild on the old, win the battle, that was never our fight to claim. This After... will show us a new transitioning, one that provides a Newness of understanding, of growth and of solitude. Be Still in this process, of a new foundation to be laid, allowing our strength and energy to be focused on the goodness of the Most High and cultivate in his presence and Glory.

This After... will arrive and we will see the results and rewards that it has in store. For we shall stand firm on the solid rock, as we rebuild our new-norm, continuing our Faith, our Love, our Peace on this new After...

FEAR NOT,
FOR I AM WITH YOU;

be not dismayed, for I am your God;

I will strengthen you,

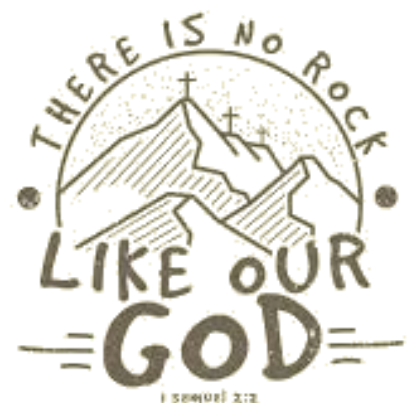

I will help you,

I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Isaiah 41:10
