Prayer meetings are taking place online via Zoom on Wednesdays at 7.00pm. If you need information on how to join the meeting please email connect@tpcf.org.uk

Let us pray for the many who have lost loved ones; those who are experiencing suffering as a result of the COVID-19, those caring for individuals, keyworkers, and those working on the front line.

Please pray for the grace, mercy, and favour of God in this season.

---

If you have a prayer request, please e-mail connect@tpcf.org.uk

February 2021

(This edition will cover the month of February)

Give your worries to God

"Can all your worries add a single moment to your life?" Matthew 6:27

Worry changes nothing except you, and the change is not for the better.

Worry will not pay your bills, solve your family problems, or give you a good night's sleep. You will not add one day to your life, or one bit of life to your day by worrying. Read these two Scriptures: "Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever" (Psalm 125:1 NIV). "You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you" (Isaiah 26:3).

The same word in both Scriptures is 'trust'. Worry simply reveals our lack of trust in God. So who are we trusting in? Ourselves. And only when that no longer works, are we willing to hand God the problem.

God knows what He is doing, and when you trust Him, 'His peace will guard your hearts and minds' (Philippians 4:7). Paul is using a military metaphor here. The Philippians lived under Roman occupation, which was bad. But they knew that the sentries also guarded their town, which was good. They knew that before an enemy could get to them, it first had to get past the guards. And because you're 'in Christ', Satan has to go through Him to get to you. Are you getting the picture? Nothing – absolutely nothing – can get to you without first coming through Him. Once you accept that, God's peace will fill your heart.

Thought for the month

"I'm not trying to be a people pleaser; I am trying to please God" Galatians 1:10

A talented young musician studied under a famous violin teacher. Now it was time for his first recital. He performed magnificently and received numerous 'Bravos!' Strangely he seemed not to hear them, but kept glancing anxiously at the front row. It wasn't until a white-haired man rose and nodded graciously, that the young violinist started to smile. His master had praised his work! He had received the only approval that matters!

We should not be obsessed with the need to impress. Don't allow the approval of others to obstruct your view of yourself. Concerning Jesus we read, 'Some... Jewish leaders, believed in Him. But they wouldn't admit it... because of their fear that the Pharisees would expel them... For they loved human praise more than the praise of God.' (John 12:42-43)

Have the courage of your convictions. Do not let others stop you from doing what you know is right!

Whose approval do you seek?

ENCOURAGEMENT AS YOU CELEBRATE

“Therefore, with minds that are alert and fully sober, set your hope on the grace to be brought to you when Jesus Christ is revealed at his coming.”

“I love you, O LORD, my strength.
The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge. He is my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.”

“You are forgiving and good, O Lord, abounding in love to all who call to you. Hear my prayer, O
LORD; listen to my cry for mercy.
In the day of my trouble I will call to you, for you will answer me.”

“For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to “Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand.

And we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God.” Romans 5:1-2
