March 2021

(This edition will cover the month of March)

Creation's Song (Psalm 19)

Scientists have found that stars don't orbit in silence in the mysterious night sky, but rather generate music. Like humpback whale sounds, the resonance of stars exists at wavelengths or frequencies that may not be heard by the human ear. Yet, the music of stars and whales and other creatures combine to create a symphony that proclaims the greatness of God. Psalm 19:1-4 says, "the heavens declare the glory of God;

the skies proclaim the work of his hands. Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they reveal knowledge. They have no speech, they use no words; no sound is heard from them. Yet their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world." In the new testament, the apostle Paul reveals that in Jesus "all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible... all things have been created through him and for him (Col 1:16). In response, the natural world's heights and depths sing to its Maker. May we join creation and sing out the greatness of the one who "with the breadth of his hand marked off the vast heavens" (Isaiah 40:12)

Atmosphere of Encouragement (Taken from Our Daily Bread—17th February 2021)

I'm encouraged every time I visit a fitness centre near our house. In that busy place, I'm surrounded by others who are striving to improve their physical health and strength. Posted signs remind us not to judge each other, but words and actions that reveal support for others' conditioning efforts are always welcomed.

What a great picture of how things should look like in the spiritual realm of life! Those of us who are striving to "get in shape" spiritually, to grow in our faith, can sometimes feel as if we don't belong because we're not as spiritually fit (as mature in our walk with Jesus) as someone else.

Paul gave us this short, direct suggestion: "Encourage one another and build each other up" (1 Thessalonians 5:11 NIV). And to the believers in Rome he wrote: "Each of us should please our neighbours for their good, to build them up" (Romans 15:2 NIV). Recognising that our Father is so lovingly gracious with us, let's show God's grace to others with encouraging words and actions.

As we "accept one another" (Romans 15:7 NIV) let's entrust our spiritual growth to God—to the work of His Spirit. And while we daily seek to follow Him, may we create an atmosphere of encouragement for our brothers and sisters in Jesus as they also seek to grow in their faith.

Prayer:

Lord help me today to encourage others along the way.

Guide me to say what will not discourage but will spur them toward a deeper walk with You in Your love.
