SPRING INTO ACTION

April 2024

CHRIST'S LOVE FOR YOU

“Christ's love is too wonderful to be measured” Ephesians 3 v.19

Princess Alice was Queen Victoria's daughter. When her son contracted an incurable disease called black diphtheria, the doctors quarantined the boy and warned his mother to stay away from him lest she get infected. Yet she couldn't. One day she overheard her son whisper to his nurse, 'Why doesn't my mother kiss me anymore?' His words melted her heart and she ran to him, smothering him with kisses. Within a few days, she died and was buried. What would compel a mother to risk her life for her child? Love!

Now stand at the cross and ask what would lead Christ to do something even greater for us? Love! Writing to the believers at Ephesus, Paul says, 'I want you to know...Christ's love...is too wonderful to be measured.' You can trace the greatest action of Christ to his greatest attribute – love. Perhaps the people who should have loved you, didn't; and those who could have loved you, wouldn't. Maybe you were left at the hospital, or left standing at the altar, or left with an empty bed and a broken heart. Regardless of the cause, you were left with the question, 'Does anybody love me?' And today Christ answers unequivocally, 'I do!' The truth is, His love for you 'is too wonderful to be measured'.

Hymn writer Charles Gabriel wrote: 'I stand amazed in the presence of Jesus the Nazarene, And wonder how he could love me, a sinner, condemned, unclean. How marvellous! How wonderful! And my song shall ever be: How marvellous! How wonderful! Is my Saviour's love for me!' God couldn't love you more than He does right now, and that will never change.

Jesus is Raised from the Dead

 - His faith was too weak.
 - He believed the story of the religious leaders that Jesus' body had been stolen.
 - He was not able to see Jesus because of his sinfulness.
 - He was not with the other disciples the first time the risen Jesus visited them.
- 6) What did it take to finally convince Thomas that Jesus had risen?
 - He saw the wounds in Jesus' body left by the crucifixion.
 - He heard the testimony of Mary Magdalene about seeing Jesus alive at the tomb.
 - He recognized Jesus' voice when Jesus spoke to him.
 - He recognized Jesus' face when Jesus came close to him.
- 7) What did Thomas say when he realized Jesus really had arisen?
 - "Christ the Lord has risen!"
 - "Glory be to God!"
 - "My Lord and my God!"
 - "Master, You are alive!"
- 8) What did Jesus say to Thomas?
 - "Whoever believes in Me is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God's one and only Son."
 - "The work of God is this: to believe in the one he has sent."
 - "Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."
 - "I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things?"
