SPRING INTO ACTION

April 2026

YOUR DEBT HAS BEEN PAID

“He said, ‘It is Finished!’ ” John 19 v.30 (NKJV)

In Old Testament times, you received forgiveness from God by bringing a sacrificial lamb to the altar, where a priest would shed its blood and offer it as atonement. The first person in Scripture to do this was Cain’s brother, Abel (see Genesis 4:4). When Solomon dedicated his magnificent temple, he sacrificed 120,000 sheep and 22,000 oxen as a sacrifice for the entire nation. In the Old Testament Tabernacle, the sacrificial fire was never allowed to go out; it had to be kept burning. The Israelites carried it with them on their journey through the wilderness, and it’s been estimated that between Gethsemane and Easter, no less than 100,000 lambs died, literally turning the Kidron Stream red.

However, not one fluid ounce of the blood that was shed could atone for our sins. They were simply rolled forward, waiting for a lamb whose sacrifice would end all sacrifices, a priest whose finished work would atone for sin once and for all. And that’s what happened when Jesus cried, ‘It is finished.’ In Hebrew, the phrase literally means, ‘Paid in full.’ At that moment, the curtain in the temple that separated the people from God was torn from top to bottom. As a result, we can now go at any time where only one man could go one day a year – into the presence of God, knowing we’ll be loved, accepted, seen through the blood of Christ, and deemed righteous.

With that in mind, ‘Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need’ (Hebrews 4:16 NKJV).

Jesus is Raised from the Dead

 - His faith was too weak.
 - He believed the story of the religious leaders that Jesus' body had been stolen.
 - He was not able to see Jesus because of his sinfulness.

- 7) What did Thomas say when he realized Jesus really had arisen?
 - "Christ the Lord has risen!"
 - "Glory be to God!"
 - "My Lord and my God!"
 - "Master, You are alive!"
- 8) What did Jesus say to Thomas?
 - "Whoever believes in Me is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God's one and only Son."
 - "The work of God is this: to believe in the one he has sent."
 - "Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."
 - "I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things?"
